

Howaida Shalaby B.PH.SC is a seasoned business leader driven by purpose to enhance healthcare services provision & women empowerment .

A pharmacist by education , having a diversified experience within the healthcare sector . Howaida started her career within Ferring pharmaceuticals gaining experience on the business from the corporate side, afterwards she decided to launch her own business creating a multichain of pharmacies across diversified geographies with specific focus on underprivileged areas .

She has been an active board member in Alexandria business women association (ABWA) since 2003 where she Co-led multiple projects in collaboration with Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung & VDU, Arab business women association to support small businesses and upscaling business capabilities while empowering women.

In tandem , she is the acting Vice president of Geil al-Amal NGO where she has overseen the execution of community support projects including but not limited to , housing , clean water provision , education and hand crafts tutoring for both children & women .