

Biography

Alia Badawi is a consultant of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Laparoscopy; former head of Gynecology department of El Moassah University Hospital, Board member of Alexandria Endoscopy Association (Alexea). Working with the Arab League as instructor & consultant for the African French speaking doctors in Africa (Les docteurs francophones).

Treasurer of MASMO (Medical Association for Scientific Research of Obesity). Vice president of Economic Entrepreneurship Association, vice president of ABWA (Alexandria Business Women Association). Shareholder in one of the private hospital in Alexandria.

Alia went to Sainte Jeanne Antide French School then to the faculty of medicine, Alexandria University.

She graduated with MBBCH, followed by Master degree in Obstetrics & Gynecology, and later she terminated the Fellowship in Obstetrics and Gyne of Martin Luther Krankenhaus – Berlin, Germany.

In the non-medical field, she received the Diploma of Training of Trainers in Management (TOT Management) from John Hopkins University.

She started her medical carrier 1985, in Stanford Medical Center (San Francisco - USA) for 2 years; she returned back to Egypt for few years then was hired in one of the famous hospital in Jeddah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (Hai Elgamaa Hospital). After seven years in KSA, she returned back to Egypt, then few years later to Berlin, Germany to terminate her fellowship .Back to Egypt where she used to go to Tripoli – Libya, 3 days each month for performing operative procedures.

During this time she used to participate in several international congress with ABWA representing Egypt

For the last 15 years Alia is established in Alexandria – Egypt where she is practicing in the same field of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Laparoscopy in the private sector as well as directing Alexea training Center of Laparoscopy one of the few centers in the world accredited full accreditation from the American Association of Continuing Medical Education (AACME) and participating in the training of French speaking African doctors with the Arab League...